Games will be running clock, and consist of a single period of play. Game slots are 33 minutes: about 5 minutes for warm-up and about 28 minutes playing time. Play will stop at the end of the 33 minute time period and the clock will immediately be restarted for the next 33 minute game period. Coaches should quickly clear the court for the next game and those waiting should keep an eye on the game clock and have all their players assembled as a group and ready for warm-ups. The sooner players are lined up and ready to play, the more they will play. Substitutions are on the refs whistle; quickly matched up and play resumed. No timeouts except to substitute players, but no clock stoppages. Coaches must ensure that all players receive equal playing time.
